NOTE.—The collection of Paper Money here catalogued is a specially choice one, well worthy the attention of collectors, and believed to be one of the finest ever offered for public competition. The set of Congress Notes is nearly complete, lacking only the $20 of April 11th, 1778, and including all the other notes of this rare issue; all are fine, the lower denominations being much better than those usually found. Among the Colonials are many of extreme rarity, such as the Vermont, early and unique Massachusetts, first issue of New Jersey, a specimen of the rare Maryland of July 26th, 1775, etc. The issues of the Southern Colonies, all scarce, are well represented, and special attention is directed to them. The commoner notes of N. J., Pa., Del., etc., have been carefully selected and are very fine. For the benefit of those who may be unable to make personal examination, the condition of each lot is noted, and the compiler has endeavored to describe the specimens correctly. In every case the lots will be sold at so much for each note, and parties sending bids will please so order. C. D. F. B.
